³ EIL (English as an international language) is the concept of English language as a global means of communication in numerous countries (e.g., Australia, Canada, India) and at the United Nations (Dr. Hieu's).

⁴ For those students who had spoken several languages before learning English (e.g. students in Denmark, Norway, Switzerland), English IS as a New Language; English is NOT as a Second Language (Dr. Hieu's definition for the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards in Washington, D.C. in 1990).
