

President Reagan presents the Presidential Medal of Volunteerism at the White House in 1983

Dr. Nguyen Trung Hieu

Asian Lifetime Humanitarian Award

~ November 22, 2009 ~

President Clinton honors the National Board of Education Award at the White House in 1994

Presidential Medal of Volunteerism from President Reagan at the White House in 1983

Golden Apple Award for Excellence in Teaching in 1987

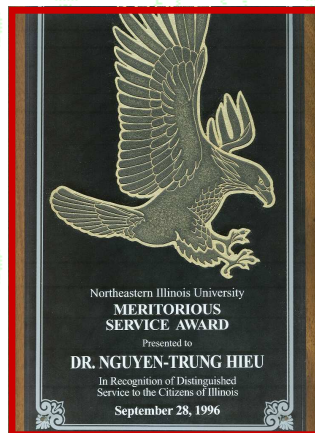

President Jefferson Medal of Public Service from the AIPS at the NBC Chicago Tower in 1996

Governor James Thompson's Leadership Award in 1989

NEIU University President's Meritorious Service Award in 1996

Dr. Hieu is an Advisory Board Member to U.S. Secretary of Education

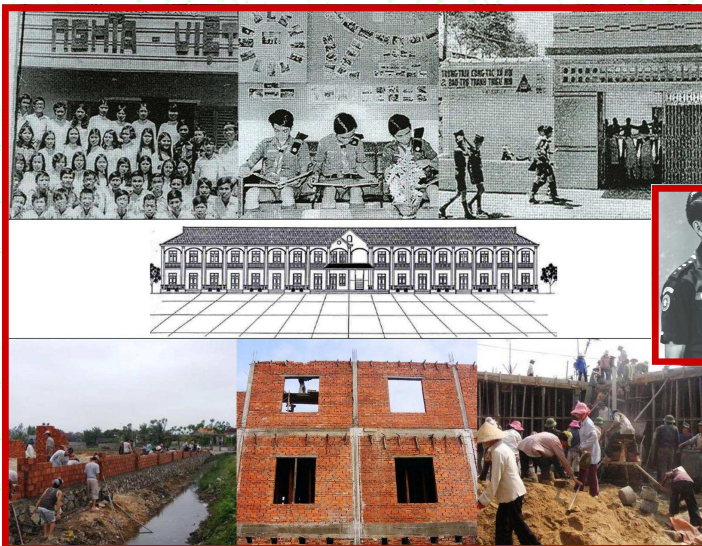

Dr. Hieu married to Marie Mai, MD at Saint Anthony Catholic Church-Diocese of Peoria, Illinois on April 27, 2002

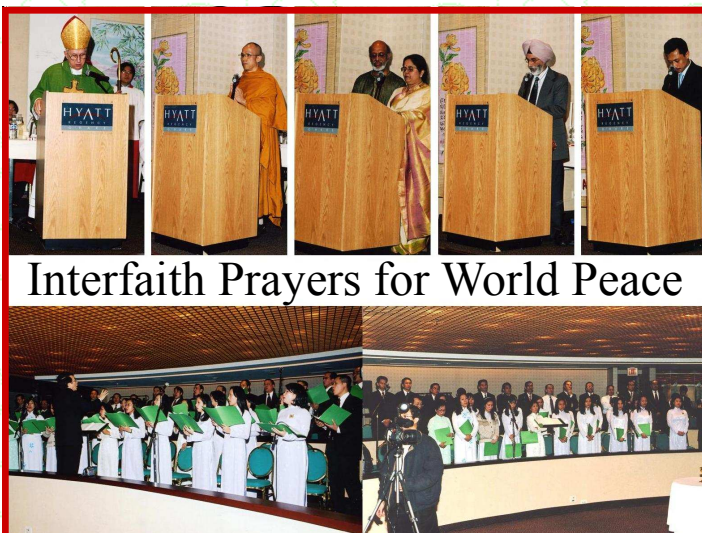

The AACC Conferences on Intercultural Education were organized by Dr. Hieu in 2005, 1997, and 1989

The “Youth Who Excels” award program was initiated by Dr. Hieu in 2005 to honor outstanding Asian students in scholarship, leadership, and service

As the founder of Nghia Sinh Volunteers for Human Service & Leadership Development, Dr. Hieu has built Nghia Viet High School, Song Hung Center, and others to served the underserved since 1963

A church was built in 2007 (100% completion) and a school was built in 2009 (50% completion) by Nghia Sinh’s members and friends, and Dr. Hieu’s leading contributions

Interfaith Prayers for World Peace

The AACC Interfaith Prayers for World Peace were organized by Dr. Hieu in 2005, 1997, and 1989

A Catholic Unity Choir performance conducted by Fr. Joseph Thao for more than 70 thousand people